

Anchor House

Weekly Update

First Week of School

This week we have returned to school uniforms, school routines, and after-school activities!

On Monday morning, we were up by 7am to prepare for our first day back to school. We filled our water-bottles and tied our school ties, ready for the week ahead. This week we have thought a lot about how we represent Anchor House to the rest of the school.

We've also continued learning our SIX ETHICS OF LIFE. The final three are:

4

BEFORE YOU WRITE, THINK

5

BEFORE YOU DIE,
LIVE

6

BEFORE YOU REST, WORK

Congrats, Annabel!

On Tuesday, our Year 7 pupil Annabel received the Manager's Player award at the Fleetwood Firebirds Football Presentation! Well done, Annabel!

Volunteer Librarian

Our Year 7 pupil Aaru volunteered to alphabetise our entire house library, and she is doing an amazing job keeping all the books neatly organised!

Post-Prep Fun

We have enjoyed lovely weather this week...perfect for evening play sessions with Mrs Henigan!

Welcome back, Mr McNab!

This week we have also welcomed our team of tutors for the year. We'll be introducing each one of them to you over the course of the next few weeks. Mr McNab returns this year as our Monday night tutor. He writes:

"Hello everyone, I'm Mr McNab and I'm an English teacher in the Senior School. It has been a real pleasure being a tutor and getting to know the children in Anchor these past five years- time flies when you're having fun! When not at school I enjoy spending time with my wife and children, walking our dog Stella, riding my bike and reading a good book."

TABLE FOOTBALL—A BIG HIT!

“First” Day Pictures

On Sunday night, we did a trial run in our school uniforms to practice for the week ahead. Don't we all look great?
